

GEORGE D. HAY SOCIETY board minutes for July 2022

Present: Fred McKinney, Eric Lewis, Barbara Williams, and three proxy members.

The meeting was called to order by president Fred McKinney at 12:45 PM.

Minutes of the June meeting were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was read and approved as read.

Old business:

There was a discussion of reprinting the George D. Hay biography, "The Story of the Grand Ole Opry." The legal aspects of doing so will be researched, and we will get an estimate on the reprinting costs.

New business:

Discussion was held on the possibility of moving the GDHS display which is currently at the Harlin Museum to the Ozarks Heritage Resource Center (recently renamed the Ozarks Heritage Research Center in August of 2022) at Missouri State University's West Plains campus. As the display case at the Harlin Museum is very heavy to move, we should leave that display as it is. An additional display can be installed at the OHRC of George D. Hay Society photographs.

Our next meeting will be August 13, the second Saturday of August instead of our usual third Saturday, since the induction and awards ceremony will take place on the third Saturday, August 20.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:45 PM.
